Gerald Ssemaganda – Director of Programs & Community Services

Uganda Association of Quebec (UAQ)

Gerald Ssemaganda serves as the Director of Programs & Community Services at the Uganda Association of Quebec (UAQ), where he leads the planning, implementation, and coordination of programs that promote community development, cultural preservation, social inclusion, and member well-being.

Driven by a passion for serving others, Gerald is committed to developing meaningful initiatives that respond to the needs of the Ugandan community in Quebec. He works closely with the executive team, volunteers, community partners, and stakeholders to deliver programs that foster unity, empowerment, and active community participation.

As Director of Programs & Community Services, Gerald oversees the design and management of cultural events, educational workshops, newcomer support initiatives, youth and family programs, community outreach activities, and social welfare projects. His goal is to ensure that every program creates opportunities for learning, connection, personal growth, and community engagement.

Gerald believes that strong communities are built through compassion, collaboration, and service. He is dedicated to creating an inclusive environment where every member feels welcomed, supported, and empowered to contribute to the success of the association.

Through strategic planning, partnership development, and a commitment to excellence, Gerald continues to strengthen UAQ's impact by delivering programs that celebrate Ugandan heritage, promote integration, and improve the quality of life for community members across Quebec.

Personal Motto:

"Empowering Communities, Inspiring Service, and Building a Stronger Future Together."
