Wilberforce Katumba Wasewire – Founder & President Uganda Association of Quebec (UAQ)

Wilberforce Wasewire is the Founder and President of the Uganda Association of Quebec (UAQ), a community organization established to unite, support, and empower Ugandans living in Quebec while promoting cultural heritage, social integration, and meaningful partnerships within the wider Canadian community.

As the visionary behind UAQ, Wilberforce founded the association with the belief that a united community can create greater opportunities for growth, mutual support, and positive impact. Under his leadership, UAQ has continued to develop programs and initiatives that strengthen community engagement, celebrate Ugandan culture, support newcomers, promote youth and family development, encourage volunteerism, and build lasting relationships with public institutions and multicultural organizations.

As President, Wilberforce provides strategic leadership for the association by guiding its vision, setting organizational priorities, promoting good governance, and ensuring that UAQ remains accountable, inclusive, and responsive to the needs of its members. He works closely with the Executive Committee, Board of Directors, volunteers, community leaders, and partners to foster collaboration and deliver programs that create lasting value for the Ugandan community in Quebec.

Wilberforce is passionate about servant leadership, community empowerment, and building bridges between cultures. He believes in creating an organization where every member has the opportunity to contribute, grow, and feel a strong sense of belonging. His leadership emphasizes integrity, unity, transparency, respect, and service to others.

Through his dedication and vision, Wilberforce continues to lead UAQ in advancing its mission of promoting the well-being, integration, and success of Ugandans in Quebec while preserving the rich cultural values and traditions that unite the community.

Personal Motto:

"Leading with vision, serving with integrity, and building unity for generations to come."
